VERDICT FORM

For each Count of the Indictment, the jury must unanimously find each individual defendant either guilty or not guilty of that charge. Once the jury has determined the verdict for a defendant, the foreperson should place an "X" in the appropriate column next to that defendant. The jury should continue deliberations until a unanimous verdict has been reached with regard to each defendant for each count (i.e., each defendant has an "X" in either the "guilty" or "not guilty" column).
